

Genesis 1:20-23

Then God said, "Let the waters abound with an abundance of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the face of the firmament of the heavens." So God created great sea creatures and every living thing that moves, with which the waters abounded, according to their kind, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. And God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth." So the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

Which came first, the chicken or the egg?

An age old question that the world has been asking for centuries. But did you know that the bible has the answer? Sure it does and you just read it in today's verse.

† So God created great sea creatures and every living thing that moves, with which the waters abounded, according to their kind, and every winged bird according to its kind.

The answer is, that the chicken came first. "God created every winged bird" which means that God created the chicken first, not the egg.

I know this all sounds kind of silly, but if you think about it, all of life's questions are answered in the bible, you just have to search for them. Just as the answer here does not state that the chicken came first, we know it did by how we read that God created all things, including chickens (winged bird).

You may be looking for specific answers to some questions, and you may not always find them in the bible, as the example just showed us, but it doesn't mean the answer isn't there.

Some are looking for someone to marry or date. The bible won't tell them, but it does tell us what to look for in a man or a woman when we, as Christians, want to get married or date someone.

It won't tell us what job to accept, or what car or home to buy, but it will give us wisdom on making everyday, life decisions.

So, go ahead, ask the Lord your question, and then ask Him to show you in His word the answer, or how to discern what to do. You may be surprised to find out that the answer was right there in front of you all the time. But maybe you were just looking for the egg as the answer instead of the chicken (winged bird).

† Jeremiah 29:13 And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart.
