2 Cor 4:8 (NLT)

We are pressed on every side by troubles, but we are not crushed and broken. We are perplexed, but we don't give up and quit.

I remember almost 15 years ago when I was going though a separation that ended in a divorce a few years later. I was pressed emotionally.

We are pressed on every side by troubles, but we are not crushed and broken.

But since you are reading this then you know that even though I was pressed emotionally, I was not broken. Sure, there were times when I wanted to say, "I give up. I quite. I can't take this any more." But the Lord was with me always to help me along in those times when I needed Him the most, and during that time, it was continually.

So what is going on in your life right now? Have you given up? Are you ready to just throw in the towel and walk away defeated? Let me encourage you today not to do such a thing. If you decide to give up on the Lord you are giving up a great tomorrow. How do I know this? Read what God said to King David after God confronted him about his sin with Bathsheba.

Did you catch that last sentence I also would have given you much more!

There is so much more God wants to do in your life, but He can't if you decide to walk away from Him.

I know personally that the Lord has done amazing thing in my life the last 15 years, including writing and recording Worship Music, writing and publishing a Christian novel, still doing devotionals and teachings on this website, allowed me to go to Israel, and on and on. But if I just gave up 15 years ago, none of that would have ever happened for me.

So don't give up and don't be a quitter, We are perplexed, but we don't give up and quit. But rather lean on the Lord and allow Him to be your strength in time of need. It may last for a while, but there is a light at the end of the tunnel, and if you walk with Jesus, you can have light going through the tunnel as well!

Psalm 89:15 Blessed are the people who know the joyful sound! They walk, O LORD, in the light of Your countenance.
