

Isaiah 40:12-14

*Who has measured the waters in the hollow of His hand,
Measured heaven with a span
And calculated the dust of the earth in a measure?
Weighed the mountains in scales
And the hills in a balance?
Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD,
Or as His counselor has taught Him?
With whom did He take counsel, and who instructed Him,
And taught Him in the path of justice?
Who taught Him knowledge,
And showed Him the way of understanding?*

How many times have we questioned God on what He is doing in our lives or even the lives of others? So many times we say, "Why God" or "Why are you doing or allowing this to happen to me?"

God says:

† Isaiah 55:8-9 *"For My thoughts are not your thoughts,
Nor are your ways My ways," says the LORD.
"For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
So are My ways higher than your ways,
And My thoughts than your thoughts."*

It's like we think that we know better than God. But have you ever thought that maybe it's time to stop asking God why and start realizing that HE is GOD, and we are not! So, instead of questioning God, we should start praying:

† Psalms 119:73b Give me understanding, that I may learn Your commandments.

Sometimes we go through things so that we may learn to be obedient to His commands. Not as a punishment, but rather a time of learning.

† James 1:2-3 My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience.

Remember when we were in school and would get upset every time there was a test? But now that we are older, we realize that those tests helped us to study and learn, not to punish us. When we go through trials or temptations, we should be in God's word so that we can learn and grow from these testing and trials.

We must also remember who our teacher is as we strive to be like Him:

† With whom did He take counsel, and who instructed Him,

*And taught Him in the path of justice?
Who taught Him knowledge,
And showed Him the way of understanding?*

Also remember that Yes, Jesus did ask God why?

† Matthew 27:46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" that is, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"

Yet He remain obedient, even unto death.

† Philippians 2:8 And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross.

So, go ahead and ask God why, we all have done it. But regardless of if He answers you are not, stay obedient to the Father's will, not your own.

† Luke 22:41-43 And He was withdrawn from them about a stone's throw, and He knelt down and prayed, saying, "Father, if it is Your will, take this cup away from Me; nevertheless not My will, but Yours, be done." Then an angel appeared to Him from heaven, strengthening Him.

† John 13:13 You call me Teacher and Lord, and you say well, for so I am.

† Psalm 86:11 Teach me Your way, O LORD; I will walk in Your truth; Unite my heart to fear Your name.
