

Jer 32:27

Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh. Is there anything too hard for Me?

There are so many things I can't do.

I can't swim, I can't have a baby (because I'm a man), I can't fly, I can't do algebra, I can't paint beautiful pictures, and so on.

So does that mean I'm useless? No, just because I can't do everything or some things that others can do, does not make me useless, it just means I'm not God, and neither are you, that's why you can't do everything either. But God can!

† Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh. Is there anything too hard for Me?

God can do all those things I said I couldn't do, and He can do all the things you can't do. In fact God not only can do them, He made them and gave others the ability to do them.

But you know what, there is something that you and I can do that God can't.

† Titus 1:2 in hope of eternal life which God, who cannot lie, promised before time began

Did you see it?

God, who cannot lie

But what we can do, that God can't, is nothing to boast about.

So, next time you think of God or talk to Him, remember Who He is and that He can do ALL things, nothing is too hard for Him. All you have to do is ask.

It doesn't mean He will do it for you, but it also doesn't mean that He can't either.
