

John 3:17

"For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.

Do you believe this verse?

It's straight from the bible, but do you believe it? If you do believe it, here is something to think about during Christmas. How does the world and even some Christians portray Christmas? Well, let's see.

For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but so that they could have parties and get drunk.

For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but so that they could spend more money than they have and go into debt.

For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but so that the world would teach their children about a man who doesn't exist, and lie to their children about him leaving gifts for them, if they are good of course.

For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but so that they could have a few days off of work.

For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but so that they would buy stuff for people that no one would buy for themselves because they are so useless.

For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but so that they would care about others at least once a year.

Sad to say this is what the world and even some Christians do with the birth of Jesus. But the real reason Jesus was born was: For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.

This Christmas, and everyday, may you share the true meaning of the birth of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior with all!

† Hebrews 13:16 But do not forget to do good and to share, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.
