

Matt 28:20

"teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

Few things to think about before you start your weekend.

- Would you light up a cigarette in church?
- Would you drink beer in church?
- Would you watch an "R" rated movie in church?
- Would you smoke pot or take drugs in church?
- Would you watch pornography in church?
- Would you cuss or tell a dirty joke in church?
- Would you talk bad about someone in church?
- Would you hit someone out of anger in church?
- Would you watch that same TV show that you did the other night in church?
- Would you listen to that music in church?

I know these sound like ridiculous questions, and the answer would always be no, but why would the answer be no?

"Well, because God is there and He doesn't want me to sin, or I wouldn't want to do it in the presence of God or my pastor."

Isn't that the way we think?

But did you read Jesus' words today? I am with you always, even to the end of the age.

We seem to forget that the Lord is always with us. We seem to think that God is only at church and when we leave the church on Sunday morning that we leave God there.

But didn't you invite Jesus into your life?

Did you invite the Lord into your home?

Well if you did, then He is always there with you no matter what you are doing.

Something to think about next time you decide you do one of the things mentioned above, or commit any other sin.

If you want to do it in church, then should you really be doing it?

✠ Psalm 139:7-10 Where can I go from Your Spirit? Or where can I flee from Your presence? If I ascend into heaven, You are there; If I make my bed in hell, behold, You are there. If I take the wings of the morning, And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, Even there Your hand shall lead me, And Your right hand shall hold me.
