

1 Cor 16:6

And it may be that I will remain, or even spend the winter with you, that you may send me on my journey, wherever I go.

This next week we will go on a little journey. So where are we going? Nowhere actually, but what we will be doing this week is walking the Romans Road.

“Romans Road, what’s that?”

Well it depends on who you are, if you are not a Christian, this is a road we will travel for this next week finding out why and how to become a Christian. If you are already a Christian, this is a road we will also travel on this week that you will be able to walk others through and lead them to Jesus Christ.

“So do I have to fly to Rome, I really don’t have the money to do that you know.”

There is no flying involved and you can walk this road right there on your computer, smart phone, or if you are reading a printed version, you can walk it right there where you are sitting.

So, what is this Romans Road? It’s four verses in the book of Romans (Hence the name Roman’s Road), that show that we are all sinners, in need of a Savior, and that Savior is Jesus Christ.

“So what are these 4 verses?”

- † Romans 3:23 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,
- † Romans 6:23 For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.
- † Romans 5:8 But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.
- † Romans 10:9 that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.

Or putting them all together would read as:

For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God. For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us, that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.

So today if you are a Christian, pray and ask the Lord to speak to you this week and bring these verses back to your memory as you share Jesus with others.

If you are not a Christian, pray that the Lord will reveal Himself to you through His word this next week.
